

Arthur C. "Art" Caster

United States Navy,
Veteran,

Arthur C. "Art" Caster, 75 years of age, of Science Hill, Kentucky, departed this life on Monday, December 8th, 2014 at his residence.

Art was born on January 3rd, 1939 in Indianapolis, Indiana, son of the late Arthur and Edith Mae Sprague Caster. He was a veteran of the United States Navy. Art worked as a lithographer for the Hennagan Printing Company in Cincinnati, Ohio. Art was a member of the Pleasant View Baptist Church in the Welborn Community. He enjoyed fishing, listening to music, playing guitar, and he loved his Dodge Charger.

Art was survived by one son, Sean (and Gina) Jenkins of Los Angeles, California; four daughters, Amy (and Randy) Wood of Stewartstown, Pennsylvania, Ann Miller of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, Angela (and Sean) Lawson, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Alicia (and Pat) Walters of Cincinnati, Ohio; one brother, Richard Caster of Sydney, Australia; one sister, Linda LeVelle of Biloxi, Mississippi; twelve grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; a dear friend, Geraldine Warren of Science Hill; and a host of other relatives and friends who mourn his passing.

Art was preceded in death by his parents, Arthur Caster and Edith Mae Caster; and his wife, Barbara Lee Caster, whom he married on December 5th, 1997 in Batavia, Ohio and who departed this life on March 18th, 2010.

Visitations were held on Wednesday, December 10th, 2014 after 6:00 p.m. in the Chapel of the Lake Cumberland Funeral Home in Somerset, Kentucky.

Funeral services were held on Thursday, December 11th, 2014 at 11:00 a.m. at the Pleasant View Baptist Church with Bro. William Brown officiating. Military Honors were conducted by the American Legion Post No#38 Honor Guard.