

NEW LONDON - Richard W. Ellis, 70, of Newport Road, died Friday [21 Jan 2000] at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon after a long illness.

He was born in Lawrence, Mass.

He graduated from Newton High School, the Dartmouth College Class of 1951 and the U.S. Naval Academy Class of 1955.

He taught at the U.S. Naval Academy and duty stations in London, Portsmouth Naval Shipyard, Vietnam, the Armed Forces Staff College in Norfolk, Va., and DCASPRO Sanders in Nashua. While in the Navy he attained the rank of commander.

He was a long standing member and lay reader at All Saints Church in Peterborough and St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in New London.

He was predeceased by a daughter, Kimberly Ann Ellis, in 1992.

He is survived by his wife of 45 years, Barbara (Randall) Ellis of New London; a daughter, Pamela Averell of Goffstown, two granddaughters; and a sister, Charlotte Fowler of Northport, N.Y.