

Gerald Glenn Fuller

05/29/1940 - 05/01/2023

Gerald Glenn Fuller was born to his parents, Ada Mae Heath and Gerald Dalton Fuller on May 29, 1940 in Pontiac, Oakland, Michigan. His spirit returned to his heavenly home to reunite with his parents and eldest son, Benjamin Glenn Fuller in the evening of Monday, May 1, 2023.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 55 years, Vilma Yolanda Carballido Fuller, his 6 children, and 21 grandchildren. Also surviving, his younger brother, confidante and best friend, Thomas Fuller (Myrtle). Tom and Glenn were the only children of their devoted parents. His children Sara Blaine (Niel), Beverly Gams (Greg), Cristina Faustini (Val), Susan Udall (Rhett), Meloney Rogers (Kelsey) and Al, a.k.a. Gerald Fuller (Randi) are grieved at his passing but grateful their dad can finally rest in peace.

Glenn started life as an energetic boy with a love of learning and service. He entered the Marine Corp at the age of 18 touring and training overseas on board the USS Boston CAG-1. While touring overseas he discovered the Book of Mormon. Knowing it as another testament of Jesus Christ, he converted to full membership to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, was baptized July 4, 1965, and is a devoted, active member heretofore.

Glenn also studied business receiving his MBA from the University of Phoenix. He appreciated technology earning certificates in computer processing, and his love in this field became his life's work. Glenn moved his family to Mesa, Arizona in 1977, where he stayed for the rest of his life. He has been passionate about doing the right thing, living a Christ-like life and spending time with his family.
