

Obituary

James Nathan Halk, 76, of Marysville, Ohio passed away Friday, February 16, 2024 at Riverside Methodist Hospital.

Born January 30, 1948 in Springfield, Ohio, he was the son of Nathan Halk and Wanda (Grover) Halk. On May 19, 2012 he married Paula Piteo at the 94th Aero Squadron.

James proudly served his country in the U.S. Marine Corps during the Vietnam War. He worked as an Operations Manager at Worthington Steel. James previously worked at Pacer Global Logistics as a dispatcher and then on the Inside Sales Team. An avid Buckeye, Bengals and Reds fan, James also enjoyed skiing with his wife, Paula.

In addition to his wife, Paula Halk, he is survived by his daughters, Danielle (Eric) Clark, Amy (Andy) Recknagle, and Melissa (Chris) Funk; sons, Chris Halk and James (Andy) Halk; stepchildren, Jason Swisher, Jeff Swisher, Jacob (Bre Cunningham) Swisher, Cady Swisher, Amanda (Swisher) Brandon Novena; grandchildren, Ferris and Cece Clark, and Meadow Funk; step grandchildren, Donavin, Logan, and Nathan Novena; sister and brother-in-law, Mary and James Fortier; brothers and sisters-in-law, Pat and Becky Piteo, Andy and Julie Piteo, Tom and Carol Piteo; nieces and nephews; and loyal companion, Athena.

He was preceded in death by his father, Nathan Halk; mother, Wanda (Grover) Halk; and son, Erin Halk.